The people behind FTL...

...are the team responsible for those immensely successful — and immensely original — animated adventures from Gargoyle. A team that combines a high degree of technical proficiency with sound business sense. And the product is everything you would expect when the industry's leading animators set out to create a new arcade label. The FTL team is dedicated to bringing you a product ideally suited to the fast-changing nature of the electronic leisure market — fast, original, arcade games...
